IN RECOGNITION OF THE ALEXIS COMPANY

HON. RASHIDA TLAIB

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Ms. TLAIB. Madam Speaker, today I rise to recognize an African American-owned small business, the Alexis Company, based in Detroit in Michigan's 13th Congressional District, as they celebrate their thirty-fifth anniversary.

The Alexis Company is the culmination of the hard work of its founder Regina Dubose. Born and raised in Detroit, Ms. Dubose dreamed of one day running her own business when she was a child. She credits her financial and business acumen to the mentorship she received in one of her earliest jobs working at a local accounting firm. Ms. Dubose was drawn to a career in psychology and counseling after earning her Bachelor's and Master's degrees from Wayne State University, but she found herself drawn to entrepreneurship when she began working as a vendor at concerts and events in the mid-1980s.

By 1986, Ms. Dubose was able to open the Alexis Company. Over the years, she has grown the business with expanded product lines and by engaging with local events and organizations. The early initial successes solidified the Alexis Company's reputation as a reliable partner in community events. Ms. Dubose was able to leverage this work into a distributorship for the company, which increased their access to promotional products and broadened their competitive edge in new markets at the local, state, national, and international levels.

Under Ms. Dubose's leadership, the Alexis Company has adapted to the changing demands of the business. Most recently, she has shifted her focus to sharing her knowledge by writing and publishing a book about her experiences. Ms. Dubose and the Alexis Company reflect the grit and adaptability needed to succeed as an entrepreneur. Small businesses are the backbone of local economies, and it is especially meaningful when minority-owned businesses succeed and thrive.

Please join me in recognizing Regina Dubose and the Alexis Company as they celebrate thirty-five years in business as we wish them well in the years to come.

HONORING ISABEL MARTINEZ SANTOS AS IOWAN OF THE WEEK

HON. CYNTHIA AXNE

OF IOWA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Mrs. AXNE. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor Isabel Martinez Santos as Iowan of the Week. Isabel immigrated to the United States and has lived in Iowa for 28 years. Isabel has become a staple of advocacy within her community. Isabel has committed herself to addressing the conflict that exists in our world through her position with the Iowa Coalition Against Domestic Violence and with Nuestras Danzas sin Fronteras, a community-focused dance group she founded.

Isabel started her very accomplished career as a member of a community group that worked directly with women who faced violence in different aspects of their lives. Through this, and the values that were instilled in her from her parents, Isabel began to amplify the voices of those in need. This year, Isabel was promoted as the co-director of Iowa Coalition Against Domestic Violence's Legal Clinic as the Bi-Lingual DOJ Accredited Representative. She provides legal services, consultations, resources, and support to survivors of partner violence. She also offers technical assistance, mentorship to Spanish-speaking bi-cultural advocates, and training. Her commitment to advocacy on behalf of survivors is evident in her extensive track record of 22 years in the victim services field.

In addition to her role with the Iowa Coalition Against Domestic Violence, Isabel found another way to give back to her community. Isabel founded Nuestras Danzas sin Fronteras almost six years ago hoping to create a place for self-care for other advocates. Since its opening, Isabel has welcomed a broader spectrum of members of her community to highlight individual cultures, have fun, and overcome the barriers of trauma. Through her group, Isabel strives to provide change that will last for generations.

Not only has Isabel been an incredible advocate for the women of Iowa, but Isabel is also the 2021 recipient of the Diane Reese Excellence in Advocacy in the Movement (DREAM) Award from the National Network to end Domestic Violence. This national award is granted to individuals who incorporate and demonstrate the spirit and promise of true advocacy in all aspects of their life—one who emulates Ms. Reese's commitment to clear and ethical communication, her eagerness to collaborate in the spirit of true partnership, and her deep respect for the dignity, worth and humanity in each one of us.

Isabel hopes to be a role model and leave a legacy for her three children, her community, and immigrant women around the world by continuing to actively work to end the violence that exists in our world. It is my pleasure to name Isabel Martinez Santos Iowan of the Week.

IN RECOGNITION OF SOUTHERN WAYNE COUNTY REGIONAL CHAMBER DISTINGUISHED YOUNG WOMAN AWARD RECIPIENT DEIDRE CROCKETT

HON. DEBBIE DINGELL

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Mrs. DINGELL. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize Deidre Crockett, volunteer at Beaumont Health as she is awarded the Distinguished Young Woman Award at the Southern Wayne County Regional Chamber's 5th annual Women of Achievement Awards. Her significant contributions to our community are worthy of commendation.

Ms. Crockett attended high school in Taylor, Michigan. She is currently studying Biomedical Physics at Wayne State University in Detroit, Michigan as Wayne Med-Direct scholar. The competitive Wayne Med-Direct program aims to educate students about urban health disparities and help future physicians lead the way in improving the health and wellness of urban and underserved communities. In the future, Ms. Crockett wants to become a geneticist specializing in treating sickle cell disease and offer low-cost treatments to families
